

a

The diagram consists of two straight lines intersecting at a central point. This intersection creates four angles. The angle in the top position, formed by the upper-left and upper-right rays, is labeled with the letter 'a'.